Scams are unfortunately common in the solar industry. Learn more about some of the most likely scams you may face when trying to go solar.

If generators went unused, the IRS could bar buyers from claiming the solar tax credits. And if the IRS barred the credits, DC Solar would lose the only thing anyone seemed interested in.

Browse and view scams reported to the BBB. Search BBB's database of reported scams and share scams with others to help protect you from existing schemes.

They exist. It's a very small percentage of rooftop solar companies, but it would be a lie to pretend there aren't any and there's nothing to worry about.

And while they promise free or low-cost solar panels, or offer you huge rebates, tax credits, or utility incentives to pay for those solar panels, those are lies.

SEATTLE -- Scammers across the U.S. are going door-to-door, pitching "free" solar energy systems. Many homeowners never get any solar equipment installed; those who do often get ...

It's likely a scam. While there are some government-funded solar programs for households that qualify, "going solar" isn't free. Honest businesses will tell you exactly how much it'll ...

Whether you're seeking a highly portable option or need one that's heavy-duty enough for extended use, these are the best solar generators we've tested and researched to date.

While you are browsing solar power companies, one of them may offer to install a solar panel or solar roof in your home for a small cost or even for free. It's an intentionally misleading...
