

Title: Pristina electricity

Generated on: 2026-05-21 07:15:52

Copyright (C) 2026 2XT Power. All rights reserved.

For the latest updates and more information, visit our website: <https://www.2xt.com.pl>

-----

Citizen Sabri Rexha finds the lack of electricity worrying at a time when temperatures have dropped, while criticizing why there has been no investment in this sector.

The KESCO company has said that a breakdown at the Prishtina 2 substation has caused several outlets to be out of service and a certain number of consumers in the capital to be left ...

Hundreds of business owners blocked roads into Kosovo's capital Pristina on Thursday to protest at a regulatory mandate forcing them to buy power from the open market that they say ...

Hundreds of business owners blocked key roads leading into Kosovo's capital, Pristina, on Thursday in a dramatic protest against a new regulatory mandate that could triple their electricity ...

A protest against an upcoming 21 percent increase in the price of electricity in Kosovo will be held in the Kosovo capital, Pristina, this Friday, February 6, Kosovo media reported.

As per reports, on Friday (06 February), a public protest is scheduled in Pristina, Kosovo, against a proposed 21 percent increase in electricity prices. o According to reports, the protest targets the ...

Protests have begun in Pristina against the announced increase in electricity tariffs.

Two hours after the meeting of the Board of the Energy Regulatory Office, a protest was held in Pristina against the increase in the price of electricity. Besnik Shabiu from the &quot;Not a Cent ...

The organizers of the protest in Pristina announced a new protest on April 11, if the decision to increase energy tariffs is made. The Energy Regulatory Office has warned that, starting ...

Many citizens protested today in Pristina against the announced increase in the price of electricity. With banners and opposing slogans, the protest began near the facilities of KEDS and ...

